Prison sentence in theft case

LĪHU'E – Walter L. Mills, 43, of Kapa'a, was sentenced on Wednesday to serve five years in prison for stealing a laptop from Walmart on August 9, 2015.

Judge Kathleen N.A. Watanabe handed down the sentence after hearing argument from Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Keola Siu and Deputy Public Defender John Calma.

Judge Watanabe ordered that Mills serve his sentence concurrently with a federal prison sentence Mills is serving for robbing a Kapa'a pharmacy last year.
